

Dear Brekke,

I hope you're well.

I was wondering if you might be interested in writing about Bodrum, Turkey as the perfect fall escape in the sun – it's one of the countries open to U.S. citizens to travel to.

Bodrum is a stunning seaside town that will also give the option of working from home by the sea – a lot of locals from Istanbul/Ankara have booked months-long stays in Bodrum during the summer months, so that's also an option for US travellers.

I can arrange interviews with boutique hotel Maçakizi which was recently featured in the Financial Times' How To Spend It magazine, chic resort Bodrum Loft (here's the Instagram account) or the d.ream restaurant group who run high-end restaurants like Sait and Zuma in Bodrum, among others.

Let me know whether or not this might be of interest. I'm also happy to chat on the phone to discuss further.

Best
Zharina
